

Virtual Programming in 2020-2021
Sisterhood Programming

ENTIRELY VIRTUAL

Programming	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>-Host Zoom programming regularly. Utilize the breakout rooms, polls, and chat features.</li> <li>-Frequency: Keep mandatory sisterhood events to a minimum (maybe 1-2 a semester). Think quality over quantity. However, offer at least 1 virtual sisterhood event a week to enhance connection.</li> <li>-Organize small groups, like 'Torch Groups' to have Zoom dates</li> <li>-Rose Buddies are not limited to New Members – bring these back for sisters to connect.</li> <li>-Implement movie nights or Netflix watch parties.</li> <li>-Host candle passes across classes to prompt deeper thinking.</li> <li>-Utilize platforms such as Kahoot, Jeopardy, etc to implement competition game nights</li> <li>-Use ice breakers to get to know sisters in random breakout rooms</li> <li>-Implement a Google Form for positive 'sister shout outs' to be shared at chapter</li> <li>-Implement virtual book clubs or reading lists</li> <li>-Create groups based on shows/movies sisters are watching</li> <li>-Host weekend coffee/brunch zoom dates</li> <li>-Host a craft night through a sister who can help facilitate (tie dye, painting, create body scrub, bracelets, canvas making, sculpting, etc)</li> <li>-Ask a sister to host a baking/cooking class online for sisters to participate</li> <li>-Ask a sister to host a workout class virtually (yoga, conditioning, barre, etc)</li> </ul>
Gift Giving	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>-E-cards or E-gift cards</li> <li>-Create Jib Jabs of sisters at events and send throughout the chapter</li> <li>-Consider mailing gifts to chapter members who need a boost</li> <li>-Organize orders through vendors that can be delivered directly to members homes</li> <li>-Think about mailing birthday cards or 'pick me up' cards</li> <li>-Send small things to show big gestures – think stickers or candy</li> <li>-If sisters live together in off campus housing, send treats when appropriate</li> </ul>
Morale	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>-Work with the social media chair to implement shoutouts with blurbs about sisters</li> <li>-Consider making sisterhood videos to be sent and shared to the chapter</li> <li>-Brainstorm sisterhood awards to chapter members (like superlatives)</li> <li>-Track individual reach out – there are always some sisters dwindling that don't feel connected. Make sure everyone is addressed on a one to one basis and feels cared for</li> </ul>

SOCIAL DISTANCING & A LIMITED CAPACITY

Programming	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>-Host Zoom programming regularly. Utilize the breakout rooms, polls, and chat features.</li> <li>-Frequency: Keep mandatory sisterhood events to a minimum (maybe 1-2 a semester). Think quality over quantity. However, offer at least 1 virtual sisterhood event a week to enhance connection.</li> <li>-Organize small groups, like 'Torch Groups' to have Zoom dates</li> <li>-Rose Buddies are not limited to New Members – bring these back for sisters to connect.</li> <li>-Implement movie nights or Netflix watch parties.</li> <li>-Host candle passes across classes to prompt deeper thinking.</li> <li>-Utilize platforms such as Kahoot, Jeopardy, etc to implement competition game nights</li> <li>-Use ice breakers to get to know sisters in random breakout rooms</li> <li>-Implement a Google Form for positive 'sister shout outs' to be shared at chapter</li> <li>-Implement virtual book clubs or reading lists</li> <li>-Create groups based on shows/movies sisters are watching</li> <li>-Host weekend coffee/brunch zoom dates</li> <li>-Host a craft night through a sister who can help facilitate (tie dye, painting, create body scrub, bracelets, canvas making, sculpting, picture frames etc)</li> <li>-Ask a sister to host a baking/cooking class online for sisters to participate</li> <li>-Ask a sister to host a workout class virtually (yoga, conditioning, barre, etc)</li> <li>-Host small outdoor group gatherings following CDC guidelines</li> </ul>
Gift Giving	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>-E-cards or E-gift cards</li> <li>-Create Jib Jabs of sisters at events and send throughout the chapter</li> <li>-Consider mailing gifts to chapter members who need a boost</li> <li>-Organize orders through vendors that can be delivered directly to members homes</li> <li>-Think about mailing birthday cards or 'pick me up' cards</li> <li>-Send small things to show big gestures – think stickers or candy</li> <li>-If sisters live together in off campus housing, send treats when appropriate</li> <li>-Look into creating gift bags with items individually wrapped that can be left outside members' doors (delegate delivery sisters to help with this effort)</li> </ul>
Morale	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>-Work with the social media chair to implement shoutouts with blurbs about sisters</li> <li>-Consider making sisterhood videos to be sent and shared to the chapter</li> <li>-Brainstorm sisterhood awards to chapter members (like superlatives)</li> <li>-Track individual reach out – there are always some sisters dwindling that don't feel connected. Make sure everyone is addressed on a one to one basis and feels cared for</li> </ul>

TRADITIONAL W/ COVID-19 SAFETY GUIDELINES

Programming	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>-Host Zoom programming regularly. Utilize the breakout rooms, polls, and chat features.</li> <li>-Frequency: Keep mandatory sisterhood events to a minimum (maybe 1-2 a semester). Think quality over quantity. However, offer at least 1 virtual sisterhood event a week to enhance connection.</li> <li>-Organize small groups, like 'Torch Groups' to have outdoor dates</li> <li>-Rose Buddies are not limited to New Members – bring these back for sisters to connect.</li> <li>-Implement movie nights or Netflix watch parties or movie nights at a home</li> <li>-Host candle passes across classes to prompt deeper thinking.</li> <li>-Utilize platforms such as Kahoot, Jeopardy, etc to implement competition game nights, or host game nights at a location sisters already live together at</li> <li>-Use ice breakers to get to know sisters in random breakout rooms</li> <li>-Implement a Google Form for positive 'sister shout outs' to be shared at chapter</li> <li>-Implement book clubs or reading lists for sisters to participate in</li> <li>-Create groups based on shows/movies sisters are watching</li> <li>-Host weekend coffee/brunch/dinner dates</li> <li>-Host a craft night through a sister who can help facilitate (tie dye, painting, create body scrub, bracelets, canvas making, sculpting, picture frames etc)</li> <li>-Ask a sister to host a baking/cooking class for sisters to participate</li> <li>-Ask a sister to host a workout class (yoga, conditioning, barre, etc)</li> <li>-Host small outdoor group gatherings following CDC guidelines</li> <li>-Host self care workshops (facemasks, relaxation, meditation, etc)</li> <li>-Think about events that sisters can come to in rotations (ex: Jan-Mar birthdays for 20 minutes, April-June birthdays for the next 20 minutes, July-Sept birthdays for 20 minutes, Oct-Dec birthdays for the last 20 minutes)</li> </ul>
Gift Giving	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>-E-cards or E-gift cards</li> <li>-Create Jib Jabs of sisters at events and send throughout the chapter</li> <li>-Consider mailing gifts to chapter members who need a boost</li> <li>-Organize orders through vendors that can be delivered directly to members homes</li> <li>-Think about mailing birthday cards or 'pick me up' cards</li> <li>-Send small things to show big gestures – think stickers or candy</li> <li>-If sisters live together in off campus housing, send treats when appropriate</li> <li>-Look into creating gift bags with items individually wrapped that can be left outside members' doors (delegate delivery sisters to help with this effort)</li> <li>-All/any food should always be individually packaged and store bought</li> </ul>
Morale	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>-Work with the social media chair to implement shoutouts with blurbs about sisters</li> <li>-Consider making sisterhood videos to be sent and shared to the chapter</li> <li>-Brainstorm sisterhood awards to chapter members (like superlatives)</li> <li>-Track individual reach out – there are always some sisters dwindling that don't feel connected. Make sure everyone is addressed on a one to one basis and feels cared for</li> </ul>

