

Sigma Delta Tau

shine as one

National Dues and Fees

All initiated members pay national dues and fees each semester to support Sigma Delta Tau programs and initiatives outlined below.

New Member National Dues & Fees
$310

National Fee $100

Initiation Fee $100

Badge fee $100***

Foundation Fund Fee $5

Capital Corporation Fee $5

**Minimum fee. Actual cost varies based on selection.*

Active Member National Dues
$92.50

Supports programs & initiatives.

Provides chapter resources from SDT staff & volunteers.

Covers member technology, leadership development, biennial Convention expenses, & Torch magazine publication.

Sigma Delta Tau Foundation Fund Fee
$5

The Sigma Delta Tau Foundation supports the sorority experience including chapter officer training, philanthropic efforts, life skills programming, and financial assistance specifically for our collegiate women.

Sigma Delta Tau Capital Corporation Fee
$5

The Capital Corporation invests in our properties, members, and volunteers to offer resources and a place of belonging to all members (regardless of housing status) in promotion of sisterhood, academics and well-being.

See our website for all benefits

Insurance*
$20

Supports & provides liability coverage.

**Price is based on membership numbers from the prior spring semester. For more information, contact the National Office.*

National Dues and Fees are non-refundable.
National Dues for members approved on Special Status is $45.

Collegiate Chapter Dues, Fees, and Housing Costs

In addition to national financial requirements, members are also responsible for chapter costs. Each chapter establishes their own costs for housing and meals, dues, and other fees.